FEDERAL TROOPS TO STOP STRIKERS

Washington Sends Four Companies to Arkansas Mining Region to Enforce the Orders of U. S. Court.

Washington, November 3.—Secretary Garrison today ordered four companies of the fifth United States cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Ill., to Fort Smith, Ark., for use in maintaining order in the Hartford valley coal mining strike district. These troops will be commanded by Major Nathaniel P. McClure, who has had experience with cavalry troops in the Colorado mining fields. Federal Judge Youmans has reported he is unable to enforce his orders pointed by the United States court and in the strike zone, where mining parties are in the hands of receivers and deputy marshals have been unable to cope with the situation. It is the first time in many years that the judicial branch of the government has resorted to the military to assist in enforcing its orders.

Statement by Garrison.

Secretary Garrison explained the order as follows: "We have reached the conclusion that it is impracticable to enforce the law and the orders of the United States court in Arkansas by any other means. The court had appointed a receiver for the coal mines, the men who had been released from the custody of the United States marshal forcibly by their friends. The United States court had been unable to enforce its processes. The troops will not undertake to serve any process, they will continue themselves to making it possible for the civil officers to perform their functions. They will prevent any obstruction in the course of justice, so that the ordinary processes of the court can go on. This is a matter that concerns the federal court alone; the state of Arkansas has nothing to do with it. Major McClure was selected by Secretary Garrison to command the troops because of the manner in which he discharged his very delicate duties in Colorado."

WILSON GOT RETURNS
OVER A SPECIAL WIRE

Washington, November 3.—President Wilson received the returns from the white house tonight over a special wire. The returns were received in many contests, he made no mistake.

Most of the evening the president was busy with his family. He was seen to be in good health and stood for a while beside the telephone. With him were the professor and Mrs. Edward Elliot. The latter Mr. Wilson's sister. They came to Washington with the president late this afternoon from Princeton, where he went to vote.

News of the election of Whitman, republican, as governor of New York, was received by the president without surprise.

Attorney General Gregory, Postmaster General Burleson, Secretary Taft and other officials were in the executive offices until late in the night reading the returns.

President Wilson went to bed shortly after 10 o'clock without learning the outcome of the fight for control of the next congress.

Other white house officials remained up reading the returns until after midnight.

New Jersey Democrats notified the white house that Representative Allan B. Walsh, for whom the president voted in the fourth district by Elijah H. Hutchison, republican.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

ROUSERS are designed

now to carry out the general idea of the whole suit; to give the slender appearance sought for in the draping of the coat.

They hang straight from the hips, with no "break" at the instep; the bottom rather narrow; mostly with turnup.

In short, style in trousers is now as important a matter as style in coats. Our label in clothes is a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

G. H. S. Alumnae Reunion At Afternoon Reception

One of the largest and most interesting social events of the year is the annual reunion and reception of the alumnae of the Girls' high school. It will take place this afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock, and all graduates of the school, whether they are members of the association or not, are cordially invited.

Mrs. Perry Blackmer, with a large committee, has decorated Browning hall for the occasion, and the decorative plan repeats all the brilliancy of autumn color in foliage and flowers and the picturesque symbolism of harvest time.

Mrs. Arthur Hynde and a committee of twenty have charge of the entertainment feature, but they will make it informal. The music of an orchestra will be a bright incident, but the social spirit will be emphasized, and there will be no set program.

Refreshments will be served by Miss Mary Courtney Moore and a committee. No invitations have been issued except through the newspapers, and a large representation is expected of all the classes graduated from the school.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mrs. Theodore Shotts, of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. P. Ancker for the past week, left last night for Mobile.

Miss Lola Fitten has returned to the city after an absence of several months, and is with Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Harris on Peachtree circle.

Miss Annie May Hicks and Miss Louise Williams, of Oglethorpe, Ga., are the guests of Miss Louise Greer in Inman Park.

Miss Jean Paswell, of Elmira, N. Y., who is the guest of Mrs. Frederick Hodgson, will go to Athens, Ga., to attend the annual meeting, and she will be the guest of Mrs. J. M. Hodgson.

Dr. Stephen Barrett has been ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gunn have moved into their new home, 675 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Mrs. Emily Carter Devine is the guest of Mrs. W. J. Black.

The marriage of Miss Eugenia Richardson and Mr. Colie Brown will take place this morning at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church in College Park.

The wedding of Miss Helen Hawkins and Mr. Arthur Clark will be an event of the evening. The ceremony will take place at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawkins, on Piedmont avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dargan have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Mr. John Dooler Lowndes, on Friday evening, November 20, at 8:30 o'clock, at all saints' church. A reception will follow at 9 o'clock at home, 515 Peachtree avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Rucker will spend today in the city, and will attend the wedding of their cousin, Mr. Arthur Clark, to Miss Helen Hawkins.

THOMAS COUNTY GIRLS WIN CANNING PRIZES

Thomasville, Ga., November 3.—(Special.)—In the announcement just made by the judges of the Canning club exhibit at the Thomas county fair the two girls winning the first prizes of scholarships to a short course at the State Normal school at Athens were Miss Olivia Kennedy, of Pavo, The second prize, a trip to the state fair at Macon, was won by Miss Myrtle Allgood, of Coolidge. Others winning prizes were Misses Eulalie Davis, Thomasville; Miss Myrtle Sanders, Ochocknee; Miss Donna Fletcher, Boston; Miss Vera Hart, Pavo; Miss Bama Dekle, Ochocknee; Miss Emma Lee Sims, Ochocknee; Miss Laura Green, Boston; Miss Mattie Barrett, Thomasville; Miss Ruby Lewis, Meigs; Miss Sara Ferguson, Meigs; Miss Louise Webb, Pavo. Those winning in the demonstration of canning were Misses Myrtle and Emma, both of the Meigs school. The winners in the corn and pig clubs will be announced by the judges as soon as decided.

GEORGIA STATE FAIR FORMALLY OPENED

Largest Opening Day Attendance in History at Macon. Bigger and Better Exhibits.

Macon, Ga., November 3.—(Special.)—The Georgia state fair was formally opened here today, and during the next ten days Macon will be the host to thousands of visitors from all over the state.

The fair far surpasses anything of its kind ever held in Georgia before, and is the best evidence of the fact that the people of this state are not content with the old but are being driven home with tiding effect.

Fifteen county agricultural displays were in place today, and five others are on the way, having been delayed on account of the late closing of county and district fairs.

The counties already having their displays in place are Haskins, Bibb, Pike, Hall, Carroll, Wilkes, Wilcox, Coffee, Calhoun, Tift, Bibb, Worth, Randolph and Bulloch.

On the whole, the character of these county exhibits rank about 100 per cent better than at previous fairs.

The most remarkable features of the fair are the exhibits of the Boys' Canning club and the Girls' Canning club, representing eighty Georgia counties. The Boys' Canning club have 1,000 exhibits, representing fifty counties. Last year there were only 400 exhibits by the boys.

Miss Elizabeth Holt, state canning champion, received a letter from W. H. Hunt, of Tifton, today announcing that the Georgia Bankers' association will give fifteen scholarships in the state normal college to girls who are winners in the Girls' Canning club contests.

An increasing interest in live stock raising is shown.

Cattle Exhibits.—There are more different breeds of cattle and hogs than ever before. The first exhibit are made up of forty or fifty of these exhibits, and the county fair is a real attraction much attention.

There are also several exhibits of sheep. The poultry show will not be until Monday, when the racing begins on Friday. Horses are arriving daily for the races, there being 147 entries. Purses aggregating $6,000 have been offered.

The attendance at the fair today was larger than on any previous opening day, and the weather was ideal.

Louisiana Health Board Exhibits to Be Shown In 14 Southern Cities

Recognizing the close relation of sanitation and public health to the general prosperity of the state, the Louisiana health board has arranged to handle free of charge two railway cars fitted with exhibits by the Louisiana state board of health and attendants in charge of the same, embracing fourteen southern cities from November 4 to December 4.

The tour has been arranged in connection with the meetings of the Southern Medical association at Richmond, and the American Public Health association in Jacksonville, at which these cars will be exhibited. The cars will be in charge of Dr. Joseph H. Booth, president of the Louisiana board of health, and stops will be made at the following points for lectures: Birmingham, November 4; Chattanooga, November 5; Knoxville, November 6; Asheville, November 7; Louisville, November 8; Nashville, November 9; Memphis, November 10; St. Louis, November 11; St. Paul, November 12; Chicago, November 13; Charleston, S. C., November 14; New Orleans, November 15; Savannah, November 16; Bruns, November 17; and Atlanta, December 4.

MISS BOOTH LECTURES.

Will Tell of Her Father at Grand Opera House.

Miss Eva Booth, the commander of the salvation Army, will deliver her famous lecture, "My Father," Sunday night at 8 o'clock at the Grand opera house. She has been giving this lecture in England, Ireland, and in many cities crowds were turned away on account of packed houses.

Commander Booth is the fourth daughter of the world-famous philanthropist, the late General William Booth, who was a Quaker. Her work as a mere child in London's poorest slums won for her the official title of "the angel of the slums." The press over the country speaks highly of Miss Booth's magnetism and powers of oratory, and her lecture is looked forward to with interest by many in Atlanta.

Present at the lecture Sunday night will be Governor and Mrs. Nathan, a number of prominent philanthropists and representatives of the supreme and federal courts, the woman's club and other civic bodies. Admission will be free.

WILL AID THE W. C. T. U. Young People of Atlanta Will Take Part in Exercises.

The young people of the Christian churches of Atlanta will take an active part in the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, which convenes here November 12 to 15.

Mrs. Rosa Hayes Schachner, of St. Louis, Mo., the national general secretary of young people, will hold special meetings for the young people.

On Saturday afternoon, November 14, at 5 o'clock, the Atlanta young people of the different churches will hold a reception in the assembly rooms of the Ancker hotel, to meet socially the leaders and prominent speakers of the W. C. T. U. In the receiving line will be a leader of young people, representing each denomination affiliated with the union, and a number of young people invited to attend the meeting.

The meeting will be held at the Baptist church, at 6 o'clock, a rally of young people of all denominations will be held. The pilgrim omen composed of students of the North Avenue Presbyterian church, under the leadership of Miss Hall, will sing, using a male quartette and full chorus.

The Agnes Scott college will sing several temperance songs. Original speeches will be made by leaders of Atlanta young people, and Miss Frances Davis, a returned W. C. T. U. missionary from Japan, will speak. The young people representing different organizations will be seated in sections under their banners, and all indications point to this being the largest and most enthusiastic body of young people ever gathered together in this city.

CHARTER IS GRANTED TO BANK OF MEIGS

The Bank of Meigs, of Meigs, Ga., has applied to Secretary of State Phil Chok for a charter and the charter has been granted. The capital stock is $25,000.

An Endless Chain

A prominent physician's wife desires a beautiful tailored suit; she goes to Eisele & Hays, finds just what she wants. She pays the tailors from fifty to sixty dollars. By the end of the week that money has passed through a hundred hands—it has bought food, clothing and shelter for our Home People. Can't you see that this is far better than buying from foreign markets, where not a penny of what you spend goes to swell the progress and happiness of our people?

The Manufacturers and Merchants of your community do not appeal for your trade on a charity or sentimental basis. They ask that you buy their goods solely on their merits; they warn you of the glamour that distance lends to foreign articles which are in nowise superior to the Home-Made Product.

All your neighbor asks is a fair trial. An Atlanta Stove is far superior to most Stoves at the same price. Radium Hosiery and Aragon Shirts are good enough for any man. Cornfield Hams, Capitola Flour, Cotton Bloom Shortening, Eureka Coffee, Stone's Cake and Kennesaw Biscuit would grace the table of any home in Dixie.

Let us all practice the wise policy of keeping our money at home. Suppose the next time you buy a brush ask for a "Felco" made in Atlanta.

such as in the two counties cited, could probably undertake such enterprises. In Germany the importance of this work is officially recognized. The government maintains stations that are sent out on regular circuits through the country. The work of Franklin and Hart have set an example to all Georgia. Its universal application would be worth hundreds of millions of dollars to this state.

CONVENTION OF W. C. T. U.

The national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union, which will meet in Atlanta November 12 to 15, will bring here more than a thousand delegates, including many prominent women from every section of the United States. It is a gathering which will prove typical of the culture and refinement of American womanhood.

One of the most important conventions of the year, Atlanta is proud to entertain it. For that entertainment certain provision must be made. Homes must be secured for delegates and the committee has been essential expenses. The call has been made and the ministers of Atlanta are engaged in a campaign to provide all the homes possible and to raise a fund of $2,000 for convalescent homes for the delegates.

Supported and directed by the ministers whose congregations will do their part, this campaign will not be confined to the churches. The appeal is directed to the general public and contributions in large or small sums from those of every sect and creed will be welcomed. The W. C. T. U. is entirely non-sectarian both as to membership and policy; its work is broad in scope and within its ranks every denomination is included.

Many Atlantans have already generously agreed to open their homes to delegates to this convention, but many others are needed. Canvassing committees are at work both upon the churches and the general public and for subscription to the expense fund. Atlanta's reputation as a convention city is involved in this campaign, and it is not to be questioned that Atlanta hospitality will prove equal to the occasion.

The delegates to the Women's Christian Temperance union convention should and will be given a cordial welcome and one that will prove worthy of Atlanta.

COVER COTTON WITH COTTON.

Following the propaganda preached by The Constitution, and that has now become general throughout the cotton belt, the Chamber of Commerce of Atlanta has launched a campaign to encourage the substitution of cotton for jute wrappings. In resolutions recently passed, it is estimated that if all the commercial containers made this year were covered with cotton, a consumption of 1,500,000 bales annually.

An interesting feature is that the resolutions call most strongly upon the farmers to discard jute for cotton wrapping for their cotton. This calls to mind the fact that if the movement is to succeed at all it is to be made by the farmers and farming interests be the first to use cotton rather than jute as a wrapping. The men who grow cotton or who handle its by-products cannot but be interested in the movement.

The movement is to be made by the farmers and farming interests be the first to use cotton rather than jute as a wrapping. The men who grow cotton or who handle its by-products cannot but be interested in the movement.

A NEEDLESS CONTROVERSY.

Whether agricultural lime be applied to the soil with fertilizer, or separately, has supplied the theme for a remarkable controversy between chemists that has been raging for weeks in the columns of The Constitution.

The fact that we do not now know definitely to the point in controversy is a reflection either upon our intelligence or the way of doing business. The chemists line up in two sharply divided camps, one holding that the limestone must be administered separately, and the other that it is best used with the fertilizer.

The one conclusive test is the test made with the ground, the soil itself. That is simplicity personified. Where are our agricultural experiment stations, our state agricultural colleges, our farm colleges, our federal and state departments of agriculture that they have neglected to make these practical tests and that they have not given a practical answer?

We will soon be entering the plowing and fertilizing season. Isn't it about time for somebody to begin this experiment so that there may be an end of this discussion?

Let the actual experiments get under way without further loss of time. An acre of ground and a little intelligent observation will answer the question.

The European war zone is rich in mines, but there is considerable watered stock about them.

The apologetic Turk now says that he was only "dreaming in his guarded tent."

Vesuvius couldn't stay neutral, but plays no favorites. It is breaking out on all sides.

Think of the "Sick Man of Europe" going to war to take his medicine.

"No war talk in working hours. Always working," is the sign that shuts them off.

When James Sumner

Comes.

I.

When James Sumner comes along with days as still as night.

You dream more in the daytime than you ever dreamed at night.

When the sun comes a-vinein' an' looks you in the face.

It's the time for life-reviewin' in some far-off, quiet place.

When the sun comes a-vinein' an' looks you in the face.

II.

The leaves are fallin' 'round you aa', in fallin' seem to say:

"Did I throw away my chances as the leaves are thrown away?"

Did you have the best of the springtime an' the summer that is gone?"

Is the harvest to pay liki', now that winter's comin' on?"

III.

That's what the leaves seem sayin', an' the A-lookin' you see rise.

As you look at the leaves an' you that you turn away eye rise.

But the best has been 'em 'em on some far-off, quiet place.

But the best has been 'em 'em on some far-off, quiet place.

IV.

That's one thing 'bout the season sortin' you—makes you see.

You'd like to see the leaves an' a whirlwind dance a reel!

It's the time for life-reviewin', where you rest up from the race.

An' your conscience comes a-vinein' an' looks you in the face.

Business losses caused by an imper-

fect accounting system

Such losses cost many businesses each year far more than would the services of a qualified Certified Public Accountant.

As evidence of this statement few, if any, of those firms who have employed this service ever go back to previous systems.

They employ the service year after year because it continues to be profitable.
